

NO OPPOSITION TO KUHIO IN NOMINATIONS LAST NIGHT FOR TERRITORIAL CONVENTION DELEGATES

Few Contests in Precinct Delegations to County Convention

Lack of opposition to Delegate Kuhio in the list of candidates for the territorial convention, strong sets of nominees for the county convention and few contests between opposing slates were the features of last night's Republican precinct nominations. Candidates for both the county and territorial conventions were nominated, the primaries being held last Friday night, but in many cases only one slate was put up and the primaries will consist of no more than the casting by the secretary of the club of a vote to clinch the election to the conventions.

Six or seven contests only are to be noted in the precinct returns, which are still incomplete, although practically all of the nominees are given today. Contests in the first, second and fourth precincts of the fourth district and the ninth of the fifth are the most notable.

Several of the precinct clubs instructed their nominees for an open ballot and at least one, Manoa, for the unit rule in the convention.

Harmony in Manoa. For the first time in years, Manoa precinct—the third of the Fourth—pulled off its nominations last night with harmony throughout. In fact, the balmy night atmosphere around the Manoa tennis club grounds, where the meeting was held, was checkered with harmony. The only contest that had given promise of development was that among the Portuguese-Americans, with J. Vivichaves on one side and J. B. Enos on the other.

President Hemenway of the club steered a wise course between the two, asking the contenders to settle among themselves the men they wished to support for delegates to the county and territorial conventions. On the face of the returns from this informal primary, Mr. Enos had the advantage, but Vivichaves came in for harmony and last night's meeting was remarkable for the good precinct and club spirit developed. There was no bitterness manifested.

Only one ticket was put up for the county and one for the territorial convention, and consequently the primary is unnecessary, as last night's action settled the delegates to both conventions.

The club voted unanimously that its delegations shall be bound by the "unit rule," under which the vote of the entire delegation will be cast with the majority vote. This was satisfactory, especially as there does not seem any prospect of a serious division in the delegations.

The club also instructed its delegations to vote and work for an open ballot throughout the convention. The precinct wishes either that the roll call be taken, or that the chairman of the delegation announce openly the vote of the delegation, preferably the latter, as it will facilitate the work of the convention.

One Ticket at Waiwae. Waiwae, the sixteenth of the fifth, with two delegates, one to each convention, had but one ticket to put up and the primary will not be necessary. William Templeton was named for the territorial convention and A. W. Barnes, Jr., for the county convention. Harmony is reported from this precinct also.

Waiwae Quiet. All was quiet in Waiwae, according to the reports that reached the city today. Three delegates for the territorial and twelve for the county convention were nominated, and but one slate was put up.

Fourth of Fifth. Only one slate was put up in the fourth of the fifth district, Kahuku, although an attempt was made to nominate an opposition ticket. The man who put up the opposition ticket found no second for the nominations, however, and when the chairman ruled that the nominations were not valid, the ruling was sustained, not even the man, said to be an ex-policeman from Honolulu, voting against the ruling.

Kakaako Lively. In the Kakaako precinct, seventh of the fourth, Dick Panewa had a ticket up his sleeve to introduce, said to be an opposition ticket to the Murray-Kruger forces. On this were R. W. Booth, John H. Oliveira, Manuel Melio, Solomon Hanahano, Richard Panewa, Thomas Saffrey, Manuel Andrade, John K. Aylett and George Kahikaha. Charley Costa persuaded Panewa to hold out part of the ticket, it is said, and a compromise was effected by which some on both tickets were nominated. There is rumor of dissension in this precinct, and some think Panewa was given the worst of it.

First of the Fourth, District and county, eleven to elect—Benjamin Hoffinger, C. N. Marquez, James J. Guild, W. H. Bromley, A. F. Clark, M. K. Hui, W. K. Macpherson, John Neill, F. H. The missing precincts, all out of town ones, did not make returns last night.

"Link McCandless must cut away from Soapbox Barron, Ryan and all the political scum which he has been afflicting with in the past," said David Ewaliko, the Democratic candidate for supervisor last week. "Link is wise when he has decided to keep out of Hawaii's local politics, but he must see to it that his followers keep away also. Here we have Ryan and Farron working against fusion, Ryan even writing that if we fuse, he will hold out the campaign funds. Link may have nothing to do with this, but these are his friends and advisers, and we want him to assure us that he has cut away from them. His associates of that class have never done him any good politically, anyhow."

MURRAY - KRUGER COMBINATION FELT IN FOURTH OF FIFTH

The Murray - Kruger combination made itself known in the fourth precinct of the Fourth District at the Republican meeting held last evening.

A full ticket was not put in the field by the Kruger-Murray faction, but under the noise produced by Geo. A. Davis because his name was not put on the list of names prepared by those who wish harmony in the precinct and efficiency in the government, Kruger and Murray slid their candidates through and have begun their campaign.

Heading the list is Davis, with Kruger following next. Others whose names were put on that ticket were Theodore F. Lansing, Ed. Lord, Robert Hair, R. Baker, St. C. Sayres, Peter Hookano, Charles Lucas, Harry Rosenberg, A. Hocking, John S. Walker, Walter Drake, S. F. Chillingworth, M. A. Gonsalves, J. E. Jaeger, W. K. Brown, Gus Schuman, George A. Davis, Hiram Kolomoku, Joe Richards, Gerrit Wilder, George S. Curry, for the county and district conventions; G. E. Smithies, John S. Walker, H. D. Bowen and W. A. Bowen, for the territorial convention.

It is not known whether the people on this ticket have allowed their names to be used by Kruger. These, however, are the ones presented by Frank Kruger, Charles Murray and G. A. Davis.

The nominations made by W. R. Farrington for the territorial convention were John A. Hughes, R. W. Breckons, R. W. Shingle, Norman Watkins and W. T. Rawlins.

Charles F. Chillingworth nominated a ticket for the district and county conventions made up as follows: W. R. Farrington, John Waterhouse, Clarence Cooke, Joe Richards, G. F. Bush, H. Kolomoku, T. F. Lansing, J. J. Belser, J. H. Fisher, Fred C. Smith, George W. Smith, M. A. Gonsalves, S. F. Chillingworth, James E. Jaeger, Willard E. Brown, M. Phillips, W. H. Hoogs, Joseph M. Little, Philip Weaver, John H. Craig, George H. Angus, Manuel Cooke, John F. Soper.

George A. Davis did quite a lot of talking at the meeting, furnishing in fact the only amusement of the assembly. He claimed that there had not been a fair deal. He said he had been left off the precinct ticket and the administration had done him wrong. No one replied to him and he had the floor to himself. No one protested against his putting all the names he liked in nomination and he was entirely free to do as he pleased.

His only kick in fact seems to have been that in the formation of a slate he was left off. The presumption was from his remarks that, had his name been on the ticket proposed by Senator Chillingworth he would have been entirely satisfied. As it was not, he lined himself up with Murray and Kruger.

It thus comes about that there is to be a clear cut fight in the Fourth of the Fourth, generally rated as a business man's precinct, between Civic Decency, any Murray-and-Krugerism, The "slate" referred to by Davis was a list of names prepared with a view to giving all elements of the precinct representation and following the plan of sending a strong delegation without including in a precinct fight.

So far as known, the only protestants are Kruger, Davis and Murray, and to far as their protest is concerned no one raised a voice against their putting in as many lists of names as they pleased.

SPEECHES BY KUHIO AND DESHA MADE AT HILO

[Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence.] HILO, August 23.—Bitter denunciation of Governor Frazier's administration was the keynote of the speech made to a large crowd in the Armory last night by Prince Kuhio. He was backed up in this by Rev. Stephen Desha who declared that the matter of the opening of the Waialeale lands was a scandal and that the Governor instead of coming to Hilo to give the lands to the people, came here to give them to the railroad. Kuhio said in part:

"If the Republican party will not endorse me on the platform, I believe in then I shall appeal to the people, believing that this is the better way instead of a few men in the Republican party running things just as they see fit. I will make my fight. If the people support me then I will win out. If they do not then I am quite content."

"There is my position in a nutshell, and that is the attitude I shall stick by despite everything that is said in any way or the other in the Honolulu Press."

"I believe in a more liberal administration of the land laws. Perhaps some people may have tried to take advantage of them but I believe that there is no reason why the large number of homesteaders should be treated as though they were fakers. Every time we make a home owner we create a more valuable asset than bringing a hundred men who have no real attachment for the soil."

"I think we should try to Americanize the Islands and have a population here, holding out some inducements for them to have a real aloha. The present homesteading methods are a farce and nothing more and it is impossible for any man to make a living off a homestead."

"Again I am in favor of the territory getting what is coming to it. In this connection I have only to refer to the Waialeale water bill when I stood for the territory and the territory alone."

Encouraging Citizens. "I should like to see the large interests here give whenever they can, a preference to citizens. By this I mean that the Japanese should be restricted to the fields and that the skilled positions, such as those where mechanics are needed given to American citizens."

"Although this may cost a little more I am certain that in the long run it should pay because the man who has a feeling for the country where he lives always does better work."

"I do not undertake to criticize the large interests in this respect for I do not know to how great an extent this practice of employing aliens is carried out. But I do believe that the Republican party should endorse a policy of preference for the employment of citizens along these lines."

Rev. Stephen Desha attacked the Waialeale land matter and said that Frazier came here not to give the lands to the people of Hilo who wanted them but to the railroad company. He stated further that Carl S. Carlsmith had been given a fat remuneration for his lease but that D. E. Metzger, who had improved his property there and built a house on it had not been given any remuneration and that the land had been given to the railroad company. Desha declared that the whole matter was a scandal.

Referring to the matter of the Army he declared that if it had not been for the strenuous opposition of the Hilo people this site would have been given to the railroad for $1 the same as the post office site had.

Attacks Inter-Island. Homesteading, he declared, was an absolute farce. The inter-island company was a monopoly and it cost more to get freight from here to Honolulu than it did to get it from here to San Francisco.

The inter-island company, he stated, was instructed by the powers that be to prevent homesteaders making a living here.

He proposed legislation whereby the rates of the inter-island company would be reduced.

Lindsey, Mr. John K. Lindsey, Jr., Miss Virginia L. Purdy, The Sons of Hawaii Quartet Club played during the dancing.

During the entertainment a grand march was played, Mr. J. F. Lindsey and Mrs. S. F. Chillingworth led the grand march and every dancer followed. Mr. Lindsey and Mrs. Chillingworth are brother and sister. At midnight refreshments were served by the Misses A. K. Lindsey and M. K. Lindsey and Virginia Purdy.

The evidence gathered in connection with the discovery in the jungle of the body of William McMaster, American vice consul in Cartagena, Colombia, points strongly to murder. The Colombia government will have the opportunity of punishing the assassins before the matter is taken up by the United States.

IN THE POLITICAL EYE

S. K. Mahoe, of Waiwae, candidate for the election to the house of representatives on the Republican ticket, is probably the oldest man running for office in the territory this fall. The Waiwae veteran was born on March 21, 1845, at Puna, Hawaii, and most of his youth was spent on the Big Island. He went to Hilo Boarding School for two years and Lahainaluna School for four years, getting his diploma from the latter institution. He was married on June 11, 1862, by the Rev. D. Baldwin at Lahaina. He went to Molokai and taught school until 1864 and then returned to Puna, later going back to Molokai, and came to Honolulu in 1868, teaching here at the old reformatory school. In 1876 he went to Hilo, and there actively entered politics as a candidate, being elected to the house of representatives under the monarchy in 1878. For a time he was editor of the Kuokoa. He has served three terms in the lower house. In 1881 he was made district judge at Waiwae, holding this position for four years, and has also been district tax assessor. He has served in the territorial legislatures of 1901, 1907 and 1911.

Mr. and Mrs. Mahoe celebrated their golden wedding anniversary last June. They are highly regarded by a wide circle of friends, and Mr. Mahoe was endorsed by the businessmen of Honolulu for election to the house this fall.

Four children were born to Mr. and Mrs. Mahoe.

PHILIPPINE CAMP CLEANED OF DIVES

CAMP STOTENBURY, Pampanga, P. I., July 26.—For the first time in the history of this post, the curse which has made it the most objectionable station in the islands, in which to serve, for the enlisted man, has been removed: Ticonda and Samagato, two native barrios, adjacent to the post and just off the reservation, have been cleaned of their dives, the keepers jailed and the inmates given 24 hours in which to decamp. Since 1905, these barrios have been infested with gamblers both white and natives and a miniature Monte Carlo has been run full blast in direct defiance to law and order. In addition to that house of ill fame had sprung up like mushrooms or an abandoned farm until the health and the morals of the enlisted men were greatly endangered. These dives became such a menace that Colonel William Pauling, 24th Infantry command, the garrison, took strenuous action to stop it. Captain Abner of the constabulary with a detachment of the Insular police and a number of experienced plain clothes men went sent there to make arrests and clean up the place with the result that yesterday six Americans were sentenced by Judge Lawrence of the court to six months imprisonment and deportation to the United States after the expiration of sentence. There are twelve more cases pending against keepers of dives and their cases will come up on August 1. Ramundo Capanta and his wife, two notorious keepers of houses were arrested and have been released on P2000 bonds. The former was again arrested immediately and was arraigned on charges of breaking his parole, he being under a former sentence of three years. Today 25 native girls were arrested in Ticonda for vagrancy and 100 others have departed for regions unknown, leaving no trace behind them. The authorities here claim that the ridding of the community of these dives will have a tendency to greatly better the condition of the enlisted men serving here.

By making my sheets 36 by 39 inches (finished) to have a good turn under at the foot, when the top is worn there is enough good at the bottom to make two good pillow cases. Tear down the middle, turn in the torn edge, and overhaul neatly, on the wrong side, to the selvage. These last a long time and there is enough of the sheet left to cover the ironing board.—Harper's Bazar.

HILLES CLAIMS 34 STATES AS REPUBLICAN

G. O. P. Campaign Manager Issues Statement with 384 Votes for Taft

CHICAGO, Ill., Aug. 14.—Chairman Hilles of the Republican National Committee tonight issued a statement claiming thirty-four States, with a total electoral vote of 384, for the Republican ticket and conceding ten States, with an electoral vote of 114, to the Democratic party, and listing four States, with an electoral vote of thirty-four, as doubtful. Chairman Hilles concedes no State to the Progressives.

Following are the figures submitted by Mr. Hilles in what he calls a preliminary survey of the political situation:

Claimed by Republican Party.

State. Vote.
